This book is made available to occupy your discomfiting thoughts, instead of whoever in life has that role "in development". It is a straw man with whom you can wrastle away.

This document is discoverable and free to researchers, psychic surgeons, and Pall Mall enthusiasts. Do not use near open flame, except on major bank holidays, when you will lead the news.

The meal which is now within me was inspired by spite and envie.
-Freedrick Shauw

flushed with regrets, I make my bed at a midlatitude. engrams amounting to an egret who sublets but rarely ever speaks to the neighbors and certainly doesnt volunteer to blunder. didnt I bump into you once at a reading of George Will's “The minimum wage debate is a mildly encouraging folly”? oh, I'm sorry – I didnt know that you have a stunt double.

I toss peppercorns casually over my shoulder for good elucubration.

Connie Sellecca hording her ration of pad puffy shoulder sleeve fashion. “no asbestos,” she insists, as though we had just gay kissed.

the minister without portfolio (or shoes) soliloquizing on soapstar incalescence. I introduce myself as a psycholinguist, shake everyone's paws, then exit humming “After the Love Has Gone (Elmer Fudd Remix),” which causes my lips to cramp. I limp my way to the Sephora counter at the nearest JCPenney and have the girl apply some Powermatte Lip Pigment. I feel better and decide to try on a few sweaters, and, in the far back kiosk by the broom closet, a couple of wigs. one is called the Textured Pixie, but, amazingly, it is more homely than flirty. is this because of innate preferential differences between here, in Terre Haute, and there, in Xuchang where the wigs are made?

using what I've learned over the eons from my homeopathic fuhsician, I pluck a single fiber from the Pixie and place it on my head, instantly transforming myself into a state legislator struggling to come to terms with his age, and also to remember an eleven letter word for reaching an agreement from a woman named Claire walks by and everyone freezes in place. the older man folding mittens raises a finger and strokes the air three times like a conductor and we all chime, “didju give me my discount?” a voice comes over the public address reminding us to “go back to work or the Jets have won”.

there was some friction between the Vermont delegates to the National Rubber Grape Trade Federation. Kathee felt it was pointless to take Jerod to a barbecue place since there would be no vegan options. Bob insisted how could she know if she hadnt seen the menu, and besides, who goes to Delaware without checking out their famous green sauce barbecue? “People dont go to Georgia and skip on the anal sex,” he argued. after that, the group rode in silence all the way to the hotel, where Delonne without explanation parked their company sedan in back very close to the dumpster.
